

The Historie of

Which 1400. yeares agoe were nailde,
For our aduantage on the bitter Crosse:
But this our purpose is twelue month old,
And bootles tis to tell you we will goe.
Therefore we meet not now: then let me heare
Of you my gentle Coosen Westmerland,
What yesternight our Countell did decree,
In forwarding this deere expedience.

West. My Liege, this haste was hot in question,
And many limits of the charge set downe
But yesternight, when all athwart there came
A Post from Wales, loaden with heauie newes;
Whose worst was, that the noble Mortimer,
Leading the men of Herefordshire to fight
Against the irregular and wilde Glendower,
Was by the rude hands of that Welchman taken,
A thousand of his people butchered:
Vpon whose dead corps there was such misfise,
Such beastly shameles transformation
By those Welch-women done, as may not be Without much shame, retold or spoken of.

King. It seemes then that the tidings of this broile,
Brake off our busines for the Holy-land.

West. This matcht with other like my Gracious Lord,
Far more vneuen and vnwelcome newes,
Came from the North, and thus it did report:
On Holy-roode day, the gallant Hotspur there
Yong Harry Percie, and braue Archibald,
That euer valiant and approued Scot,
At Holmedon met, where they did spend
A sad and bloody houre:
As by discharge of their Artillarie,
And shape of likelihood the newes was told:
For he that brought them, in the very heate
And pride of their contention, did take Horse,
Vncertaine of the issue any way.

King. Here is a deare, and true industrious friend,
Sir Walter Blunt, new lighted from his Horse,

Stainde

Henry the Fourth.

Stainde with the variation of each soyle,
Betwixt that Holmedon, and this seat of ours;
And he hath brought vs smooth and welcome
The Earle of Dowglas is discomfited,
Ten thousand bold Scots, two and twenty Knight
Balkt in their owne blood did sir Walter see
On Holmedon plaine: of prisoners Hotspur took Mordake Earle of Fife, and eldest sonne
To beaten Dowglas, and the Earle of Atholl,
Of Murrey, Angus, and Menteith:
And is not this an honorable spoyle?

A gallant prize? Ha, Coosen is it not? In faith it is.

West. A Conquest for a Prince to boast of.
King. Yea, there thou mak'st me sad, and mak'st
In enuy, that my Lord Northumberland,
Should be the Father of so blest a Sonne,
A Sonne, who is the Theame of Honors tong,
Amongst a Groue, the very straightest Plant,
Who is sweet Fortunes Minion, and her pride,
Whilst I by looking on the praise of him,
See Ryot and dishonour staine the brow
Of my yong Harry. O that it could be prou'd
That some night-tripping Fairy had exchang'd
In Cradle clothes, our children where they lay,
And cal'd mine Percy, his Plantagenet,
Then would I haue his Harry, and he mine,
But let him from my thoughts: What thinke you
Of this yong Percies pride? The Prisoners,
Which he in this aduerture hath surprisde,
To his owne vse he keepes, and sends me word,
I shall haue none but Mordake Earle of Fife.

West. This is his Vnckles teaching, This is W
Maleuolent to you in all aspects:
Which makes him prune himselfe, and bristle vp
The crest of Youth against your dignitie.

King. But I haue sent for him to answere this
And for this cause a while we must neglect
Our holy purpose to Ierusalem.
